Hello Phil:

I met with Hal Sunday morning and he did raise one issue, which I am seeking to run past our consulting architect to allow for a complete analysis. We already have our consultant working on another matter, for an unrelated project, so I believe we should be able to get his attention and turnaround on his evaluation very shortly.

Hello Steve,

Reaching out to see how your meeting went with Hal.

Also to clarify the existing grade is lower at the entry to the garage and the steps up to the side yard.

regards,

Philip
