Here's the formal insurance company notice that they've hired defense counsel on our behalf. The documents indicate that we have a $2500 deductible, which I assume is correct, but perhaps Karen/Kim can check later. Can we put this on our network system for filing (not sure who does that)?

Dear Attorney Rohatiner:

On behalf of Chubb & Son, a division of Federal Insurance, we consent to the retention of your firm as defense counsel with respect to Palisair Homeowners Association and Board Members.

In handling this matter, please refer to the enclosed copy of our USA Litigation Management Guidelines. These Guidelines reflect our expectations for the handling of the above matter on behalf of our Insured. They are intended to facilitate communication, set parameters and insure an effective relationship between us with the ultimate objective of achieving a high quality, cost effective and efficient resolution. Furthermore, the Guidelines should not be construed as a means to limit, in any way, the defense owed to our Insured.

Please remain vigilant at all times for opportunities to utilize Alternative Dispute Resolution or other reasonable settlement possibilities.

After reviewing the attachments, we request that you return a signed copy of the "Litigation Management Acknowledgement" Form to the Claim Examiner Sharon Chmieleski.

Please feel free to contact Sharon Chmieleski at either (860) 408-2639 or schmieleski@chubb.com to discuss this matter and your defense strategy, or if you should have any questions or concerns regarding the above.

Regards,
